RULES and REGULATIONS

(Revised March 20, 2004)

INTERMENTS AND DISINTERMENTS

- 1. All arrangements for burial or purchase of interment privileges made by a plot holder through a funeral director or other agent shall be binding on said plot holder.
- 2. The Cemetery Trustees shall not be responsible for any order given by telephone or any mistake occurring from the lack of proper instructions as to the size of the casket, or as to the particular grave location where interment is to be made. The Cemetery Authorities reserve the right to make an equitable charge whenever additional labor costs result from such mistakes.
- 3. The Cemetery Trustees shall be in no way liable for any delay in the interment of a body where a protest to the interment has been made, or where the rules and regulations have not been complied with, or where said rules and regulations shall forbid such interment.
- 4. The deed for the plot in which the interment is taking place must be presented to the Cemetery Authorities.
- 5. The Cemetery Trustees shall not be liable for the burial permit or responsible for the accuracy of the data contained in said permit or for the identity of the person to be interred.
- 6. All burials must be with a concrete box or vault.
- 7. All funerals, on reaching the Cemetery shall be under the supervision of the Cemetery Management.
- 8. The Cemetery Trustees shall exercise due caution in making a disinterment and removal, but they shall assume no liability for the damage to any casket or burial case incurred in making the disinterment.
- 9. All interments and disinterments subject to these rules and regulations shall also be subject to the orders and laws of the properly constituted authorities of the city, county and state relating to the same.
- 10. No interments or disinterments shall be permitted on Sundays, or on any of the following holidays: New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, and Christmas Day and such other days as the Cemetery Trustees may from time to time designate. The only deviation from this rule is by order of the Board of Health.
- 11. The right is reserved by the Association to insist upon at least two days notice before any interment, and at last one week's notice prior to any disinterment.
- 12. A written order from the plot owner or legal representative giving the name, age, place of birth, marital status, place and cause of death, and late residence, of every person interred, shall be filed at the Cemetery Office at the time of interment, together with the name and address of the person now holding the deed to the plot.

13. No deed shall be issued nor any memorial placed on any plot not fully paid for. No interments may be made in any plot for which payment is not up to date.
14. No re-sale or transfer of any plot shall be permitted except to the Cemetery Trustees by the plot holder or his legal representative.
15. No plot owner may permit burials in his plot for remuneration.
16. No grave shall be dug except by employees or contractors of the cemetery. The Cemetery Trustees reserve the right to temporarily place earth on an adjoining plot when a grave is being opened.
17. Not more than one body shall be interred in any grave with the exception of Cremated Remains.

INSTRUCTIONS TO PLOT HOLDERS

1. No coping, curbing, fencing, hedging, borders, or enclosures of any kind shall be allowed around the plot. The Cemetery Trustees reserve the right without prior notice to remove same if so erected, planted or placed.
2. If the deed for the lot or grave has been lost or mislaid an affidavit sworn to before a Notary Public must be presented in which the person claiming rights to interment privileges in said plot must identify himself, establish his rights to said plot, and state that no other party has prior or equal rights to said plot.
3. All grading, landscaping work and improvements of any kind, and all care of plots, shall be done by Cemetery Trustees.
4. Children under fifteen years of age are not permitted within the cemetery unless accompanied by proper persons to take care of them.
5. Animals shall not be allowed in the cemetery or in any buildings of the cemetery, except those assisting the disabled.

SERVICE CHARGES AND PAYMENTS

The Cemetery Trustees shall have the right to fix a charge and time of payment for each interment, disinterment, plot transferred or returned, and for the performance of any other service rendered by the cemetery and all work in connection with such service shall be subject to the determination and supervision of the Cemetery Trustees.

LOSS OR DAMAGE

1. The Cemetery Trustees disclaim all responsibility for loss or damage from causes beyond their reasonable control, and especially from damage by an act of God, the elements, earthquakes, war, common enemy, air raids, invasions, insurrections, riots, order of any military or civil authority, thieves, vandals, strikers, malicious mischief makers, unavoidable accidents, or any cause similar or dissimilar beyond the control of the Cemetery Trustees whether the damage be direct or collateral. In the event it becomes necessary to reconstruct or repair any section or plot including graves or any portion or portions thereof in the cemetery, which have been damaged by such causes, the Cemetery Trustees shall give a 10 day written notice of the necessity for such repair to the plot holder of record. The notice shall be given by depositing the same in the United States mail with postage thereon duly prepaid, addressed to the plot holder of record at his or her address stated on the books of the Cemetery Authorities.

2. In the event the plot holder fails to repair the damage within a reasonable time the Cemetery Trustees may direct that the repairs be made and charge the expense against the plot and to the plot holder of record.
